

Raiders of HQ 781

"Raiders of HQ 781" is an intense scavenger hunt and a thrilling tribulation of Beaconhouse Notion of Academia '25. With hidden treasures scattered throughout campus, this adrenaline-pumping adventure will push delegates to their limits. Over three electrifying days, teams will race against time, testing their wits, speed, and teamwork to conquer this adventurous challenge. Think you have what it takes to uncover the secrets that lie hidden within the depths of HQ 781?

Overview

A total of 100 QR codes will be scattered across campus, each a portal to points and the coveted leaderboard. Delegates will face an adrenaline-pumping hunt where strategy meets agility, and only the sharpest and swiftest will rise to the top. When the window opens, the clock starts ticking. Teams must scour the campus, racing to locate, scan, and secure as many QR codes as possible. But there's a catch: once a code is scanned, it is locked; no other team can claim it. Every QR code you secure adds to your team's point tally and shifts the dynamics. However, this is not just a game of brute force. The campus holds secrets, and not every QR code may be what it seems.

Mystery of HQ 781

What is HQ 781? A number? A location? An entity? Or something far more profound? HQ 781 is more than just a game, it is a riddle wrapped in an enigma, lingering at the edges of reality and imagination. Legends whisper that HQ 781 lies at the core of something elemental, a force that pulses through the very fabric of the hunt. Delegates bold enough to look beyond the surface may uncover its hidden meaning. Could it hold the key to an ultimate truth? Or is it a trap, designed to test your resolve and intellect? The answer lies within the hunt, waiting for those who dare to seek it.

Over two days, the Raiders of HQ 781 will push you to your limits, challenging you to outthink, outpace, and outlast the competition. Will your team rise as the ultimate Raiders, unearthing the secrets of HQ 781 and claiming victory?
